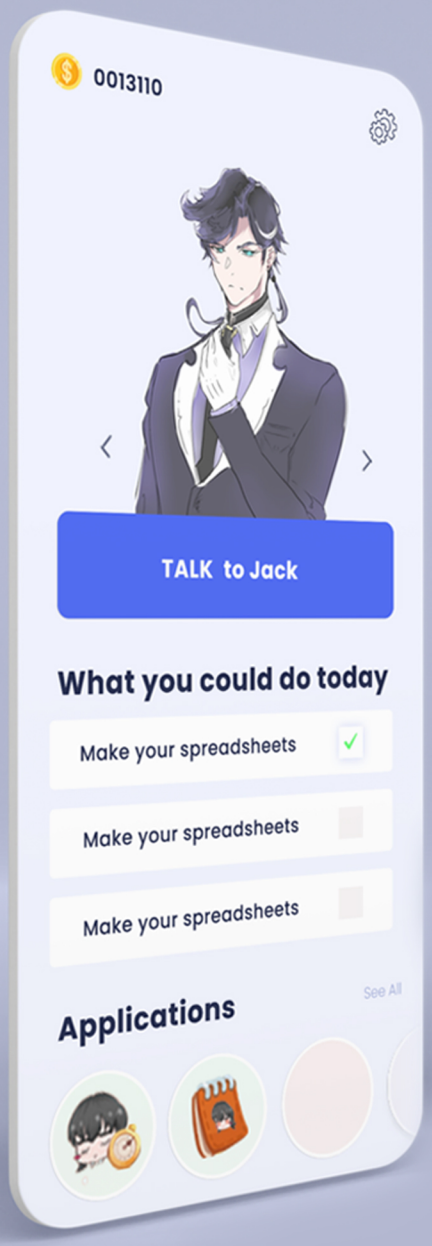
Butler Buddy

Your multiverse transmitter

This handbook will explain how the app features as well as how you can interact with it!



Hello sir! The App will be the main way to interact with your butler And for him to accompany you through life.

This notebook is made to teach you more about its features

On the home screen youll be able
- Interact with your butler
- Acces your butler's skills
- Complete daily tasks

The skills

There is two different types of skills.
Entertainment skills & utility ones , each will increase your butler's Exp in that specefic field. allowing him to level up!
Your level up butler will unlock new skills and in the future be able to upgrade some of them.

The Alarm clock

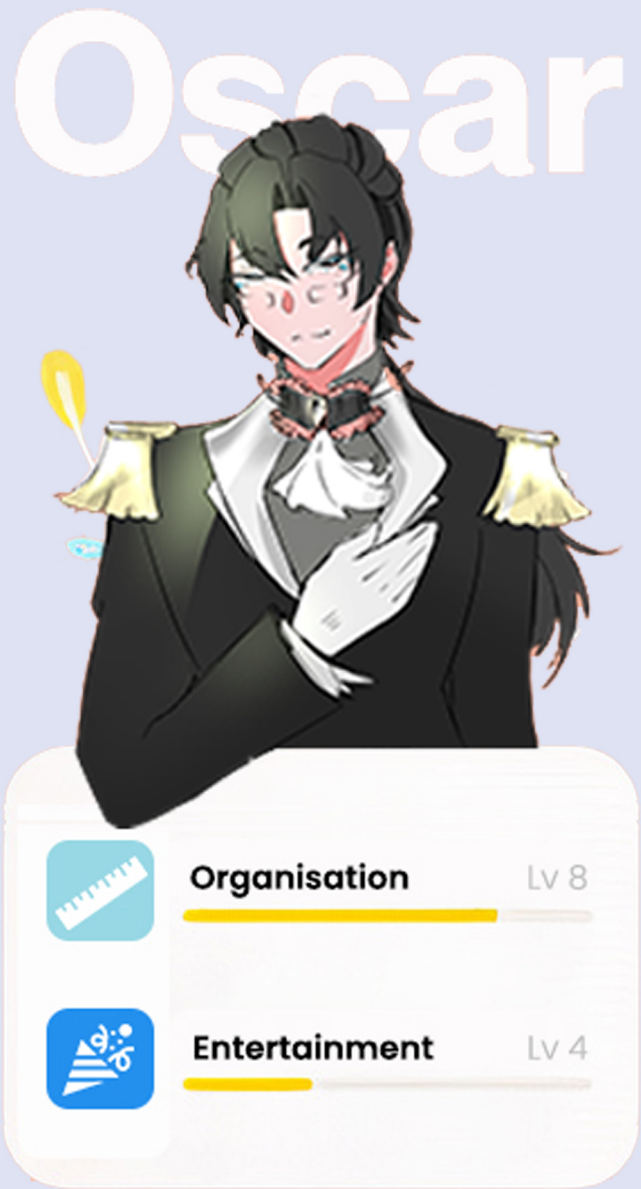
Is your morning routine take too long?

Do you spend every morning checking on your collections? changing from website to another to be up to date with everything?

Now no more! Your butler will wake you up with your collections's stats ; the daily news ; and select tweets you missed while asleep

ButlerTalk.exe

Every morning your butler will get you up to date to all that you need to know!
With time features will be added for more precise community needs.
Interacting Daily with your butler will help him know you better

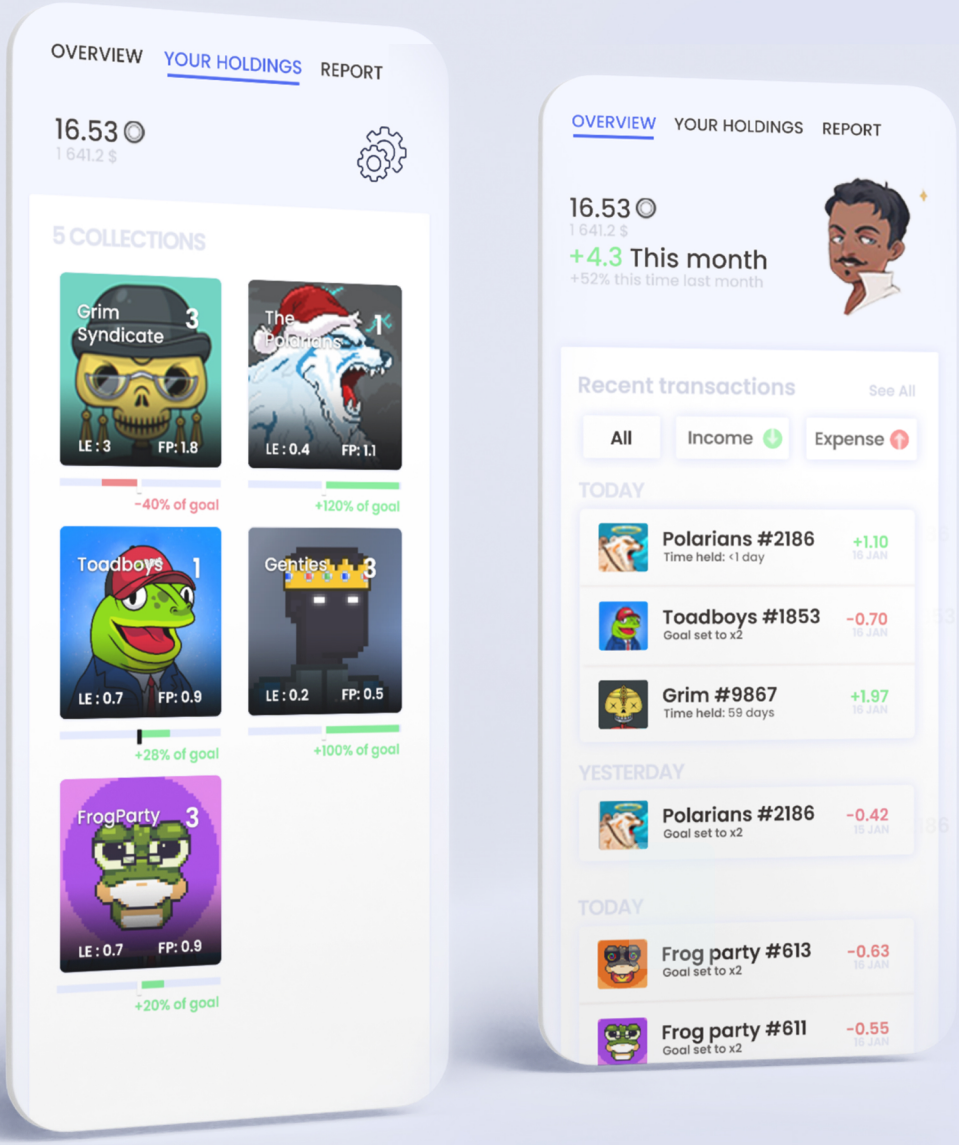


Level Up your Butler

Leveling up your butler will unlock new skills to use. With time particular and specefic skills will be unlocked to you attune to your personality

Using the app earns you $SER

Interacting with your butler , using skills & completing daily tasks will earn you $SER. The liquidity pool of $SER will be based upon the freemium features that will be launched in Q4.
In the meantime you can use $SER to purchase cosemetics for your butler



The Expense tracker

So your a trader eh?

Have you been updating your spreadsheets anon? cause if you havent you aint no real trader! Good thing you dont have to anymore your butler will do it for you.
Keep track of what your doing to know what your doing wrong or right.
Limit your choice making to just choosing the right collection.
Keep track of your entry point and desired exit point. this is not a game anon

The Habit tracker

Also know as the get your shit together-nator

I know you are fated for great things & I am here to help!
Assigning yourself good habits to track & completing them will earn you $SER. (more than any other skill)
Standard templates are availables but you can of course add your own.

Message from the Dev - I know what your thinking "well cant i just add tasks and fake completing them for $SER?" At the end of the month youll either get $SER or $SER + An improved self. If you cheat you are only cheating yourself
